CHAMBERLAIN IS HOPEFUL OF SETTLEMENT OF TIENTSIN AFFAIR: DISCUSSION ON ALL ASPECTS BETWEEN CRAIGIE AND ARITA

Further Indignities Are Regretted: No Change In General Situation

LONDON, JUNE 26 (REUTER).—IN A STATEMENT ON TIENTSIN IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THIS MORNING, THE PRIME MINISTER, MR. CHAMBERLAIN, SAID THAT VERY FEW BRITISH SUBJECTS WERE USING THE BARRIERS BUT HE REGRETTED TO SAY THAT A NUMBER OF FURTHER INDIGNITIES HAD BEEN INFLICTED UPON BRITONS.

Lord Halifax, the Premier remarked, had spoken in the strongest terms on the subject to the Japanese Ambassador in London, Mr. Shigemitsu, and the British Ambassador in Tokyo, Sir Robert Craigie, had made similar representations to Mr. Arita, Japanese Foreign Minister, with whom Sir Robert was discussing the present situation in all its aspects.

SIR ROBERT CRAIGIE

"I have some reason to hope that this discussion may lead to a settlement of the Tientsin affair and, therefore, while insisting that this treatment of British nationals must cease, I do not want to say anything which would prejudice the prospect of a satisfactory issue with the Japanese Government," said the Premier.

"The general situation in Tientsin is unchanged," declared the Prime Minister. Arrivals of perishable foodstuffs, he added, continued spasmodic and were only between 10 and 20 per cent. of the normal. Tugs and lighters on the river were subjected to search with consequent delay.

The local municipal and military authorities, added the Prime Minister, had the question of food supplies under constant review and had the authority to take appropriate measures.

Answering MR. ARTHUR HENDERSON, Mr. Chamberlain said the Japanese Government had not officially formulated to the Tientsin local authorities wider demands.

MR. ANTHONY EDEN asked whether the better hopes to which Mr. Chamberlain referred arose from contacts with Tokyo as "Tokyo promises are not always fulfilled."

The Prime Minister: I am quite aware of that and the hopes I have expressed have reference to conversations with the Japanese Government in Tokyo and I hope the Japanese Government will be able to restrain their subordinates in Tientsin.

SIR J.S. WARDLAW-MILNE asked whether there was not a very grave danger of the Prime Minister's patient and conciliatory policy to be just as misunderstood in the Far East as in Germany.

Mr. Chamberlain said he had all these considerations in mind.

Air raid precautions will occupy the London County Council when it reassembles to-day after the recess and members will be asked to vote for sums totalling £900,000. (BWS).

Swatow Invasion Threat To Hongkong

SHIU KWAN, KWANGTUNG, June 25 (Central).—The Japanese invasion of Swatow is a direct military threat to Hongkong and another step to force British and American commercial interests out of South China, is the opinion of a well-known Chinese financier who was interviewed by the Central News Agency representative.

The occupation of the South China port is also a Japanese design to cut off contacts between the Overseas Chinese and their families in the eastern Kwangtung areas, the financier stated. However, the economic life-line has not been altogether severed as the Japanese have tried to make the outside world believe.

Overseas remittances through Swatow annually total only $70,000,000 and not $200,000,000 as the Japanese reports claim. At present the Kwangtung Provincial Bank has branch offices in many of the larger towns in the province and Kwangsi through which funds may be sent from the Overseas to the families in the interior.

BARBED - WIRE BARRICADES

The Japanese at Swatow, it was reported yesterday, had erected barbed-wire barricades around British wharves, thus preventing cargo from passing freely from shore to ship and vice versa.

It is likely that, if this continues, Hongkong supplies of fish, vegetables and pork, most of which come from the Swatow area, will be seriously affected.

Otherwise, it is learned that the situation there is normal. H.M.S. Thetis is remaining in Swatow, while H.M.S. Scout has returned to Hongkong. American men-of-war still at Swatow are the Pope and Pillsbury.

BRITISH CABINET RESHUFFLE

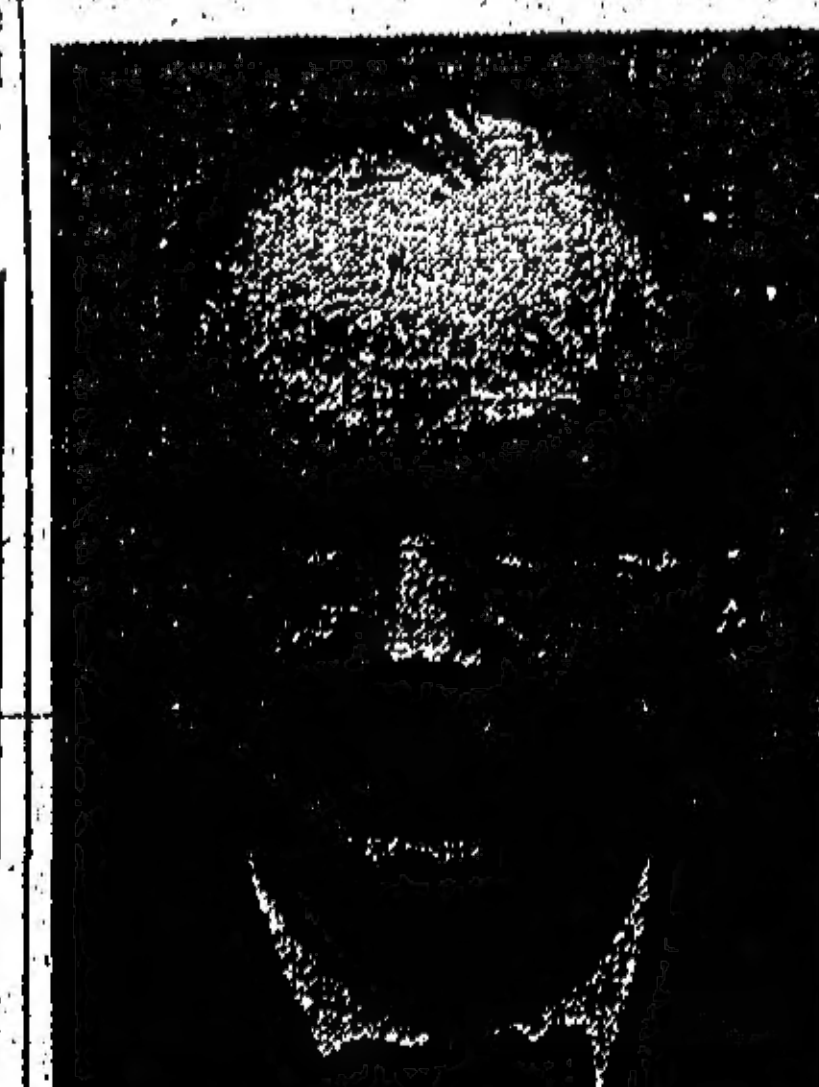

LONDON, June 26 (T/Ocean).—Far-reaching changes in the British Cabinet are forecast by the diplomatic correspondent of the "Daily Herald" this morning.

The correspondent declares that Lord Runciman, Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Maugham, and the First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord Stanhope, would be the first to resign.

The Minister for Agriculture, Sir Reginald Dorman-Smith is also likely to go, according to the report. The paper declares that the Prime Minister, who so far had always been the chief opponent to a reshuffle of the Cabinet, had lately changed his opinion on the subject.

Portuguese military officers have arrived in London to study the problem of army medical service. They were received at the War Office yesterday afternoon, according to Reuters.

"NO ELEMENT OF IMPERIAL AMBITION ON BRITAIN'S PART"

MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL

Dr. W. W. Yen, former Chinese Ambassador to Moscow and Dr. Alfred Sz, former Chinese Ambassador to Washington, are visiting in the Colony. They will attend the second tiffin meeting of the Chinese-American Institute of Cultural Relations in the Hongkong Hotel, Roof Garden, Dr. T. T. Li, newly appointed Minister to Cuba, will also be present. (Central News).

PALESTINE FRONTIER CLOSED

ROME, June 26 (T/Ocean).—The British authorities have ordered the closing of the frontier between Egypt and Palestine, it is reported from Cairo on Sunday. In future, a special permit from the British military authorities is required for crossing the frontier.

Adml. Noble's Departure Postponed

TO CONFER WITH AUSTRALIAN NAVAL MEMBER

SINGAPORE, JUNE 26 (REUTER).—THE DEPARTURE OF THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE CHINA STATION, Admiral Sir Percy Noble, who presided at the Defence Conference during the past week, has been postponed, at least until Tuesday, to enable him to confer with Vice-Admiral Sir Ragnar Musgrave Colvin, First Naval Member of the Australian Naval Board who is expected to arrive here to-morrow.

Sir Ragnar Colvin is leaving for London on Friday it is believed for the purpose of reporting to the Admiralty on naval defence in the Pacific.

NORTHERN CRUISE

When Sir Percy Noble arrives in H.M.S. Kent he is expected to stay in Hongkong for 48 hours, after which he will leave for a cruise to the North.

The Siamese Government air mission has postponed its visit to Singapore, says a Reuter message. In an official letter to the Royal Air Force, the Siamese Government said that unforeseen circumstances had made postponement of the visit necessary.

BRITISH LORRIES STOPPED

MILK SUPPLY IS ALMOST CUT OFF

TIENTSIN, JUNE 26 (REUTER).—TWO BRITISH LORRIES, ESCORTED BY MEN OF THE DURHAM LIGHT INFANTRY, were stopped at the barriers in Tientsin this morning and were allowed to pass on the eventual arrival of Brigadier Delamain.

The Japanese are concentrating on the searching and stopping of shipping.

The milk supply to the British Concession to-day was almost completely cut off.

REPORT EXPECTED

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter).—The Cabinet's Foreign Affairs Committee will meet to-night to discuss the Tientsin situation. A report from the British Ambassador in Tokyo, Sir Robert Craigie, regarding the Japanese Government's attitude is expected shortly.

With reference to a report that the British Government is planning a demonstration in the Far East, inquiries suggest that the ships are available, but the utility of sending them, unless they are an overwhelming force, is widely questioned.

The "Financial News" says it is difficult to see what the Government thinks can be gained by procrastination, with the whole world watching the struggle in the Far East, if we fail to hold ground, British prestige will suffer a blow from which recovery will be impossible. The time for compromise has passed.

The British Ambassador Sir Robert Craigie, has been instructed to protest vigorously against the treatment of Britons in Tientsin.

The British Government is intending to publish details of the indignities inflicted on British nationals in Tientsin.

HOPE HE DOESN'T SHOOT THIS DOVE TOO!

The Prime Minister and the Foreign Secretary are making fresh attempts to reassure Germany that no policy of "encirclement" is envisaged by the democracies.

French Press On Premier's Speech

APPEASEMENT ATTEMPTS SHOULD BE DEFERRED BY CHAMBERLAIN

PARIS, June 26 (Reuter).—The speech by the British Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, on June 24 is widely discussed in the press here.

Pertinax writes in "L'Ordre": "It would be better if Mr. Chamberlain deferred attempts at conciliation and appeasement until the agreement with Soviet Russia is concluded."

"Madame" Taboulat, writing in "L'Oeuvre" says, "Germany's reception of the speech proved once more that Berlin will not alter the decisions taken."

"La Republique" says, "German reaction is inspired by the aim to detach France from an ally by convincing her that Franco-British co-operation means vassalisation of France by Britain. If France must be a vassal she would prefer to be one of Britain, than of Germany."

SPEECHES MISUNDERSTOOD

LONDON, June 26 (BWS).—Referring to Mr. Chamberlain's speech at Cardiff "The Times" this morning says that Germans and Italians, who are perpetually being told that the British Empire is in a state of helpless decline, do not realise that the bullock does not bark before he bites but that when he bites he does not let go. The German and Italian press are so full of strident challenges that the quiet moderation of British speeches is being misunderstood.

It will be a catastrophe for the whole world, continues "The Times" if Mr. Chamberlain's, and Lord Halifax's repeated warnings that force will be met by force are ignored until proof has been given in action.

The "Daily Telegraph" says that our readiness to talk reason with reasonable people cannot be anywhere in doubt. Even in Germany it cannot be open to genuine suspicion, however much suspicion may be effected.

"Where we have dangerously deluded ourselves is in attempting to talk reason to unreasonable people whose only purpose is to have their own way and who regard our appeal to reason simply as a manifestation of weakness and want of will," adds the paper.

TEN KILLED IN HUPEH TOWN

FANCHENG, HUPEH, June 26 (Central).—Two bombers raided the outskirts of Fancheng to-day dropping a number of high explosives and killing ten civilians and destroying several houses.

Japan Has Mobilized Over Million Troops

SHANGHAI, June 26 (Int'l).—According to the "Journal de Shanghai," local French paper, Japan has mobilized over 1,000,000 troops in China.

They are distributed as follows: 15 divisions in North China, 15 divisions in Central China, 15 divisions in Manchuria and three divisions in South China.

The strength of each division is about 25,000 men. About five divisions are remaining in Japan to cope with possible anti-war movements. Japan may call up more raw recruits to make up a total of 52 divisions, but the new troops are not fit to take the field. The paper adds that protracted warfare in a large country like China is becoming an unbearable burden to Japan.

Japanese newspapers received here published pictures of semi-naked youths undergoing medical inspection prior to enlistments.

HUNAN PUPPETS EXECUTED

MILO, HUNAN, June 26 (Central).—Over a dozen puppet officials at Yoyang have been executed by the Japanese military garrison recently according to reliable information received here. Fei Chu-fu, chairman of the Yoyang peace preservation committee, was also shot by a Japanese squad for "delinquency."

Large crowds yesterday visited the scene of Sunday's explosion in London. Two of the victims, who suffered eye injuries, are still in hospital. Seven men have been detained in connection with the outrages while Scotland Yard is searching a number of houses. (Reuter).

M'DOWELL REDUCES RECORD
Though threatened with possible extensive delays through the Chinese celebrations of the 2,200 years old "Dragon Boat Festival," E. H. M'Dowell started at 4.35 p.m. on June 21 in a successful attempt to reduce the Island Circuit record recently established by Geo. Cottrell, his clubmate.

M'Dowell's excellent time of 1 hr. 27 mins. 23 secs. reduced the previous Class "D" figure by no less than 5 mins. 9 secs. and, in addition, brought him inside the Class "B" standard (unrestricted machines and equipment) by 2 mins. 37 secs., thus gaining him two record certificates for a single performance.

Messrs. P. Stanley and W. Etock were responsible for timekeeping, whilst checking arrangements, etc. were in the hands of Messrs. Geo. Cottrell and H. A. G. Keates.

CLUB RUN CANCELLED

The Club run to Shek-O fixed for Wednesday last was waived in favour of M'Dowell's record ride arrangements. There were no further decreases in attendances on the week-end runs to Castle Peak Bay and Kam Tin.

In view of the commencement of an intensive training programme for the forthcoming track meeting, Wednesday and Saturday runs will be discontinued temporarily. Those intending to take part in next Sunday's outing should meet as usual at 9.30 a.m. at the Alhambra Theatre, Kowloon.

ARGENTINE WINS FRENCH GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

LE TOUQUET, June 28 (Reuter)—Martin Pose, former Argentine champion, won the French Open Golf Championship yesterday with an aggregate score of 285 (73-71+73+68).

In the last round he equalled the course record.

T. E. Adams, an Englishman attached to the Royal Ghent Club, led in the second and third rounds and finished second, a stroke behind Pose.

Interport Swimming In September

COLONY ACCEPTS INVITATION

An Interport Committee meeting was held at the Victoria Recreation Club yesterday following a letter received from the Shanghai Swimming Association inviting the Colony to send a team to Shanghai for an interport contest, during the first and second week in September.

The invitation was provisionally accepted.

The events are as follows: 50 yards (Backstroke), 100 yards (Breaststroke), 220 yards, 440 yards, 880 yards, fancy diving from one metre board, 180 yards medley relay, free style relay and water polo.

Two representatives only will be permitted for each event, three men for the medley relay and four for the free style relay.

As some of the Chinese Clubs representatives were unable to attend yesterday, another meeting will be called in the next three weeks. It was also announced that a swimming gala will be held to raise funds for the tour.

Mr. S. V. Gittins presided, and those present were D. F. Lopes, M. M. de V. Soares and O. O. Barretto, (V. R. C.); Wong Shu-hong (Chinese Y. M. C. A.); Li C. Man (Army) and Mr. R. Goldman (European Y. M. C. A.).

The last Interport was held in 1935 when Hongkong beat Shanghai.

GRAND PRIX DE PARIS

Success Of French Derby Winner

LONCHAMP, June 26 (Reuter)—The Grand Prix de Paris was won yesterday by M. Marcel Boussac's Derby winner, Pharis.

Baron Edouard de Rothschild's Tricamerion was second and M. Robert Lazard's Etalonor was third.

Won by two and a half lengths with the same distance separating second from third. Nineteen ran.

An Easy Win
Pharis won easily, shooting away from the field in front of the grand stands after being hemmed in near the pavilion rails.

The winner's time was 3 min. 21 2/100 sec. and the jockey was Charles Elliott.

The betting at the ten francs stake was 21 for a win and 15, 26 and 21 for places.

SENSATIONAL DEFEAT OF CHINESE R.C. BY S.C.A.A.

W. T. Wang And Szeto Win All Sets: K.C.C. Success

The programme of "A" Division League tennis matches yesterday was marked by the sensational defeat of the Chinese Recreation Club, present holders and champions for the past seven years.

Visiting King's Park they were beaten by the South China Athletic Association by five sets to four and for their victory the home team have to thank W. T. Wang and B. Szeto who won all three sets.

The success of the home team is all the more creditable in that the Chinese R.C. turned out a fully representative side, including the Tsui brothers, Ho Ka-lau and Lee Yue-wing.

CRICKET CLUB, DEPLETED, LOSE AT I.R.C.

Rumjahn Cousins Win Three Sets

BY "TAC"

Fielding a very much depleted side, Hongkong Cricket Club acquitted themselves well when they visited the Indian Recreation Club in the "A" Division of the tennis league yesterday, losing by only 34 sets to 51.

W. A. H. ("Sticks") Duff, Alec Pearce and H. J. Armstrong were all away from the side, G. E. R. Divett, J. J. Ferguson and T. J. Gould deputising for them. The Indians were at full strength except for A. H. Madar, who was resting (following a short illness).

The visitors started off well when Goldman and Sander beat Minu and Razack 6-4 after the latter had led 3-1, and Ferguson and Gould beat Omar Rumjahn and A. R. Kitchell by the same score. With the Rumjahn Cousins winning their set against Divett and Garrod 6-2, the first round found the visitors 2-1 up—somewhat unexpected.

When two of the three sets in the second round had been played, however, the Indians in their turn led 3-2. The third set here was between Divett and Garrod and Rumjahn and Kitchell. It was a strange set. The Club pair were at one stage 4-2 and 40-love up, but were pulled back. They then led 5-4, but again the scores were levelled.

The Indian pair won the next game, to lead 6-5, and were actually love-40 up on service in the final game. Then Divett and Garrod staged an amazing chase and got the next three strokes for deuce.

After six more deuces had been played, in the course of which the home pair again held set point once, Divett and Garrod finally won the game—to share a set which they first of all should have clinched and later looked odds on conceding.

In the final round the Indians were never in danger of defeat. The Rumjahn Cousins continued to sweep everything before them, though Ferguson and Gould's 3-9 was one game more than each of the other pairs got, and Minu and Razack also won very comfortably, so that Rumjahn and Kitchell's defeat did not matter.

Scores:

O. Rumjahn and A. R. Kitchell (I.R.C.)

lost to W. Sander and L. Goldman 2-6

drew with G. E. R. Divett and S. Garrod 6-6

lost to J. J. Ferguson and T. J. Gould 4-6

I. M. A. Razack and A. R. Minu (I.R.C.)

lost to Sander and Goldman 4-6

beat Divett and Garrod 6-2

beat Ferguson and Gould 6-2

H. D. Rumjahn and S. A. Rumjahn (I.R.C.)

beat Sander and Goldman 6-2

beat Divett and Garrod 6-2

beat Ferguson and Gould 6-3

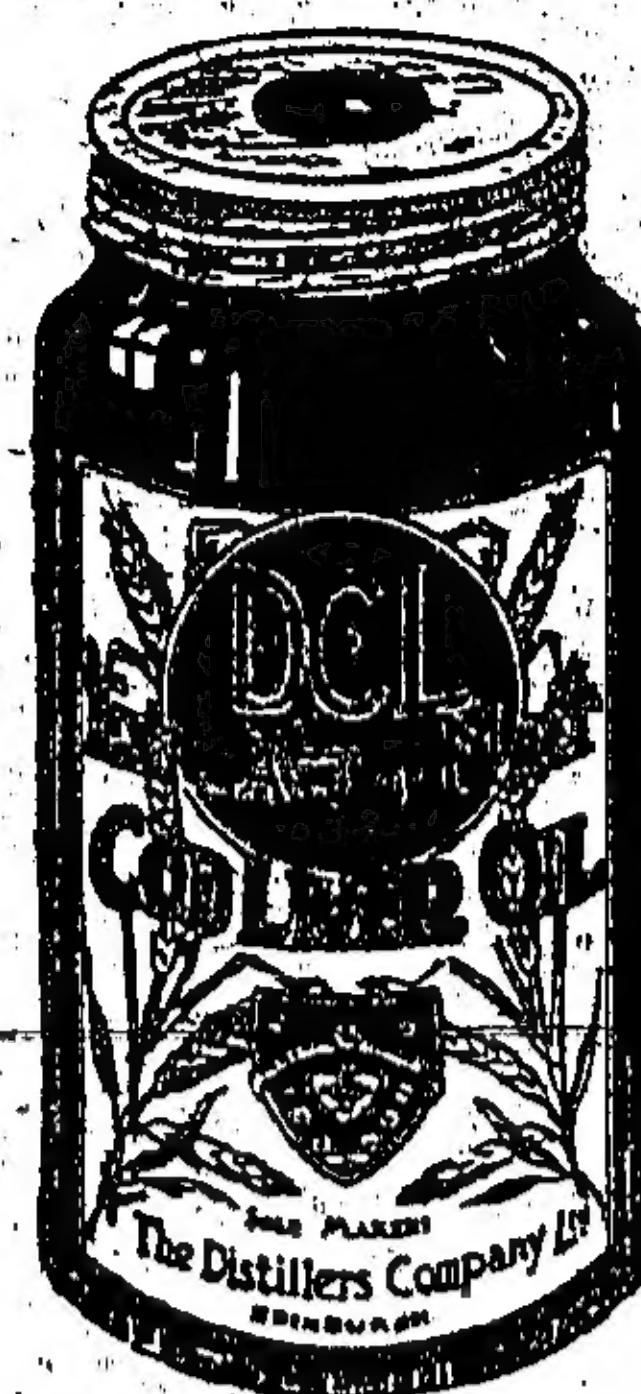

MacDonald (7) and G. Davies (12) beat A. J. MacFayden (18) and F. Buckle (12) 2 up and 1; E. Tuck (14) and W. Ahern (9) beat R. K. Valentine (7) and L. M. S. Lloyd (6) and J. B. Mackie (5) beat H. Smith (8) and E. Greenwood (18) by one hole; C. C. Stark (9) and C. M. Stark (8) beat A. D. Humphreys (8) and D. Humphreys (9) 1 up; G. Willerton (12) and R. Ellis (15) beat J. Linaker (14) and A. McKellar (6) of the 25th hole.

"The Lady Objects" At The King's

A smashing dramatic tale of marriage destroyed by a career seeking wife, Columbia's "The Lady Objects" which opens at the King's Theatre to-day, races to its thrilling climax in a court of law, where the modern Portia defends her husband against the charge of murdering "the other woman." Gloria Stuart and Lanny Ross are featured in "The Lady Objects," which is a moving account of the problem faced by many a young husband. Their roles are heart-warmingly human, and delightfully played to make the new film a vivid document of a broken home repaired only after the courtroom renunciation of her career by Miss Stuart.

Miss Stuart, a blonde cameleopard beauty, appears in her most important role to date. She is seen as a young modern unwilling to forego her career as a lawyer in order to help her husband further his career as an architect. Mr. Ross, as the would-be architect, turns in despair to the only other trade he knows... that of singing. He becomes a night club entertainer, and so widens the breach between himself and his wife.

In addition to Ross, Miss Stuart and Miss March, "The Lady Objects" has a cast that includes Roy Benson, Pierre Watkins, Robert Paige, Arthur Loft, Bess Flowers, Ann Doran, Gene Morgan, Beatrice Blinn, Dick Curtis, Robert Fluke, Stanley Brown, and others. William Perlberg produced the film for Columbia.

HOLLYWOOD WHISPERS

Seen together for the first time for many months, a shopping tour at Santa Barbara has given a fling to the romance between Greta Garbo and Leopold Stokowski.

Collapsing while at work in the studio Betty Grable was operated on for appendicitis. She is better now, but her young husband, Jackie Coogan, flew to see her from Texas, where he was giving personal stage appearances.

Claudette Colbert may replace Myrna Loy as the screen wife for William Powell in the next Thin Man picture.

Tyrone Power will again team with the young ice dancer, Sonja Henie, in the new musical, When Winter Comes.

Mariene Dietrich has signed for the star part in a French film, The Image, the story of which is by Erich Remarque. She will go to Paris next September.

Both Goldwyn and Twentieth Century-Fox are making films featuring Scotland Yard.

THE MODERN CINEMA: SAFETY AND COMFORT

The cinema has made itself an institution of this modern age; but it has taken many years for the cinema itself to realize this fact. Until quite recently, the cinema, from the points of architecture and design, has been content to be a pale imitation of its parent, the theatre.

Only now have those responsible for the building and furnishing of cinemas awoken to the fact that "Form follows function" and that there is no necessity whatsoever for the cinema to follow the tradition of theatre design.

Doubtless there are bound to be similarities, especially in the cases of those cinemas where provision is made for the staging of variety acts or other performances. But as far as the disposition of seats and questions of acoustics go, the modern cinema must strike out on its own path.

With the realisation that they are not bound by a tradition of theatre design, many of those responsible for the erecting of new cinemas in England are also turning their backs on the former idea of the mass-produced cinema and are employing really first-class architects to produce buildings with some individual distinction.

No "Public Taste"

It will not be long before the benefits of this development are apparent. Cinema owners who formerly thought that by aping existing styles they were conforming to "public taste" will discover that architecturally, there is no such thing as this "public taste."

Through the architect, the cinema owner has a duty to the man in the street: "to develop good taste in a subconscious manner through his building design." In collaboration with his architect he can create functional beauty.

This tendency, of course, is not limited to the exterior of the cinema; it is, indeed, not limited at all, for the ideal of functional beauty is all-embracing. It applies to the very uniforms of usherettes and attendants as much as it does to facades.

Functional Beauty

Where, then, does the value lie of achieving this functional beauty in cinema design, furnishings and accessories? It can be said emphatically that the value lies in public response, for the public is quick to react to good taste and attractiveness, and, perhaps even without being aware of it, always endorses the genuine effort to produce the best.

There is no space here to describe any of the latest of British cinemas in order to give examples of the way in which cinema owners are turning from the "mass-produced" to the individually-designed cinema. The fact remains that, having accepted the value of functional beauty, they are avoiding half measures and doing the thing properly.

Technical Equipment

Quite as important as decorations, seating, and so on, for achieving design and comfort in the cinema, is the question of installing the best technical equipment. In this, too, overseas cinema owners can benefit by the example set in Britain, where over 80 per cent. of the cinemas have installed equipment by B.T.H.

B.T.H., which, of course, stands for the British Thomson-Houston Co. Ltd., of Rugby, is the only company in the world which manufactures the complete equipment for sound-film projection together with stage and audi-

FILM STAR AND CHILD REFUGEES

JOE E. BROWN AT WASHINGTON

With a serious expression replacing his usual broad grin, Joe E. Brown, the motion picture star, flew into Washington recently from Hollywood to ask the House Immigration Committee to approve admission to the United States of 29,000 child refugees in the next two years.

Describing himself as "plain Joe E. Brown of Holgate, Ohio," Mr. Brown laid down a premise that "children should be helped wherever they are." He added, "Children have to belong, otherwise they perish."

His four children—two grown sons, and two adopted girls, six and eight, he said were "four good reasons for my interest in this bill."

Wagner-Rogers Bill

The measure to which Mr. Brown gave his approval is the Wagner-Rogers bill to admit 10,000 German refugee children in 1939 and 10,000 in 1940, beyond the regular German immigration quota. He said the appearance of Helen Hayes, actress of the legitimate stage, before a Senate Committee about a month ago in support of the same bill had moved him to testify.

Asked whether he would be willing to adopt a refugee child, Mr. Brown revealed for the first time publicly, he said, that his two young daughters are adopted and for seven years he gave a home to Mike Frankovitch, former star quarterback of the University of California at Los Angeles. He also referred to his active interest in the Boys Club of Hollywood.

Actress Is Halted At Gangplank For Buencamino Trial

NEW YORK June 8—Federal agents today halted pretty Noel the Buckner-Buencamino railway bond conspiracy trial which starts Monday.

Federal agents asserted that Noel was one of the beauties flown to Washington by William P. Buckner in an attempt to influence certain legislators. She said she was not trying to avoid trial and that she was going to London to appear in a stage production there.

It was indicated that Loretta Young movie actress will be among the witnesses in the trial. Buckner and Philippine Assemblyman Felipe Buencamino are charged with having used the mails to demand Philippine Railway bond investors.

College For Malay Girls

A plea for higher education for Malay girls in a College on the same lines as the College for boys at Kuala Kangsar was made by Tuan Sheikh Ahmad speaking on the adjournment of the Negri Sembilan State Council meeting.

The Hon. the British Resident, in reply, said that it was impossible at the moment to embark on any fresh expenditure, but promised that the suggestion would be forwarded to the Adviser on Education for his comments.

Speaking on the adjournment, Tuan Sheikh Ahmad said:—"I crave your indulgence in bringing up a subject which has been in my mind for a very long time. I refer to the educational facilities for Malay girls whose parents have a desire to give them English education up to the secondary classes.

VIEWED WITH DISTASTE

"It is, I believe, well known that Malay parents have for ages viewed with distaste any kind of intimacy or friendship between boys and girls especially after the latter have reached the age of 13 or 14 years. This attitude, coupled with extreme shyness on the part of the girls themselves, greatly hampers their educational progress for the girls will be compelled to leave school while yet in the elementary classes.

"There are at present about 42 girls in the State who attend either English girls' schools or mixed schools and over 500 in Malay schools. Of these a very small percentage will have the opportunity of secondary English education due to the prejudice that I have mentioned.

COLLEGE IN STATE

"In order, therefore, to extend to them a helping hand to complete their education, I respectfully beg to suggest for the earnest consideration of the Government the establishment in the State of College, with hostel attached, for Malay girls on the same lines as the Malay College for boys at Kuala Kangsar. The experiment should, I think, be tried on a small scale, as was the case with the Kuala Kangsar College. Amongst the subjects to be taught in the proposed college should be included needle-work and cookery to make the girls useful in later life.

"The establishment of such a college will, I have reason to believe, be not only a success but a great incentive to Malay parents to give their daughters all the education that they can possibly get locally and unhampered by the restriction of permitting boys and girls to mix freely. There are also many Malay Officers in the services and other Malays of means who are stationed or live in districts where facilities for English education for their daughters do not exist. Such a College will cater for them. In addition the present tendency of Malay youths appears to be to look for English educated girls to be their partners in life.

"What is of great importance is that the College will turn out educated girls who will be more useful citizens than their illiterate sisters and be the means of uplifting the community in general.

FINANCIAL LIMITATIONS

The President, speaking in reply, said he was afraid that at the present moment, owing to financial limitations, they could not embark on any fresh expenditure. He promised, however, that the suggestion made by the Hon. Tuan Sheikh Ahmad would be forwarded to the Adviser on Education for his comments.

Concluding, the President said that if they were to expand educational, medical and health services, then additional taxation would probably be found necessary.

Two Szechwan girls have submitted a joint petition to the National Military Council asking that they be allowed to enlist in the Chinese Army and sent to the front to fight the Japanese. They are Miss Chang Yung-chiu and Miss Yang Tiao-shu, teacher and graduate of the 4th Primary School of the Hsien Ho Country of Peking District in Szechwan.

One of the biggest Chinese society weddings to take place in Penang in recent months was solemnised at the Chinese Consulate, Northam Road, on June 15, when Miss Claire Chan, daughter of the late Mr. Chan Fook Nghee, and Mrs. Chan Fook Nghee, was married to Mr. Cheah Wat Hun, the youngest son of Mr. Cheah Tat Jin.

A gavel presented by the No. 1 Rotary Club of Chicago, which was handed to Dr. Li Shu-fan to be sent to the Hongkong Rotary Club, was used at the last meeting of the Club in Hongkong.

The following were among the passengers who left Hongkong for Haiphong by the s.s. Esang on June 24: Mrs. Kauf, Mr. Schenke, Miss V. H. Jolly, Mr. H. Ammann, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wong, Mr. Ho Ching-ming, Mr. Tehang Lai-ten, Mr. D. F. Myers, Mr. Y. P. Chan, Mr. Huang Chu-chui, Mr. Tehan Wen-tan, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chang.

His Excellency the High Commissioner of the F.M.S., Sir Shenton Thomas, has offered a medal of the best essay written by a member of the General Clerical Service Association. The High Commissioner has always displayed an interest in the movement to encourage reading among Government subordinates which is being fostered in the F.M.S. and as a practical example of his interest he has offered this medal.

The death occurred recently at Hobart, Tasmania, of Mr. Albert Henry Farr, a member of the structural staff of United Engineers, who went on leave by flying-boat in March. An Australian, aged about 45 years, he went to Malaya 19 years ago from Sydney and joined United Engineers, Singapore. He was connected with a number of important construction under takings in Singapore.

About 100,000 European refugees will find accommodation in a new colony in Yunnan Province with the assistance of the National Government and the Yunnan Provincial Government. This move was started by Mr. Jacob Berglas, a refugee from Germany where he has a banker and manufacturer. The community will be self-sustaining and European refugees will be welcome regardless of their religious beliefs or nationality.

Disbandment or combination of some of the Singapore European sub-units in the Straits Settlements Volunteer Force, unless a better response to recruiting appeals than has so far been apparent is forthcoming, was announced by Major-General W. G. S. Dobbie, the General Officer Commanding Malaya, in the annual report of the Force which was laid before the Legislative Council on June 15. In Penang and Malacca the European recruiting situation is satisfactory, adds Major-General Dobbie, and no such steps would be needed in those units.

SHIVERED HERSELF TO LIFE

"It was much more comfortable when I was dead," said Mrs. Frances Seymour, of Alway Road, Maldenhead, Berks.

She was telling how she shivered herself back to life.

Lying dangerously ill after childbirth in a Hampstead hospital, Mrs. Seymour stopped breathing for two minutes.

Doctors surrounding her bed felt her pulse; said she was dead.

They laid her body on ice and Mrs. Seymour promptly shivered—and was alive again.

She left the hospital, cured but not expected to live long. That was forty seven years ago.

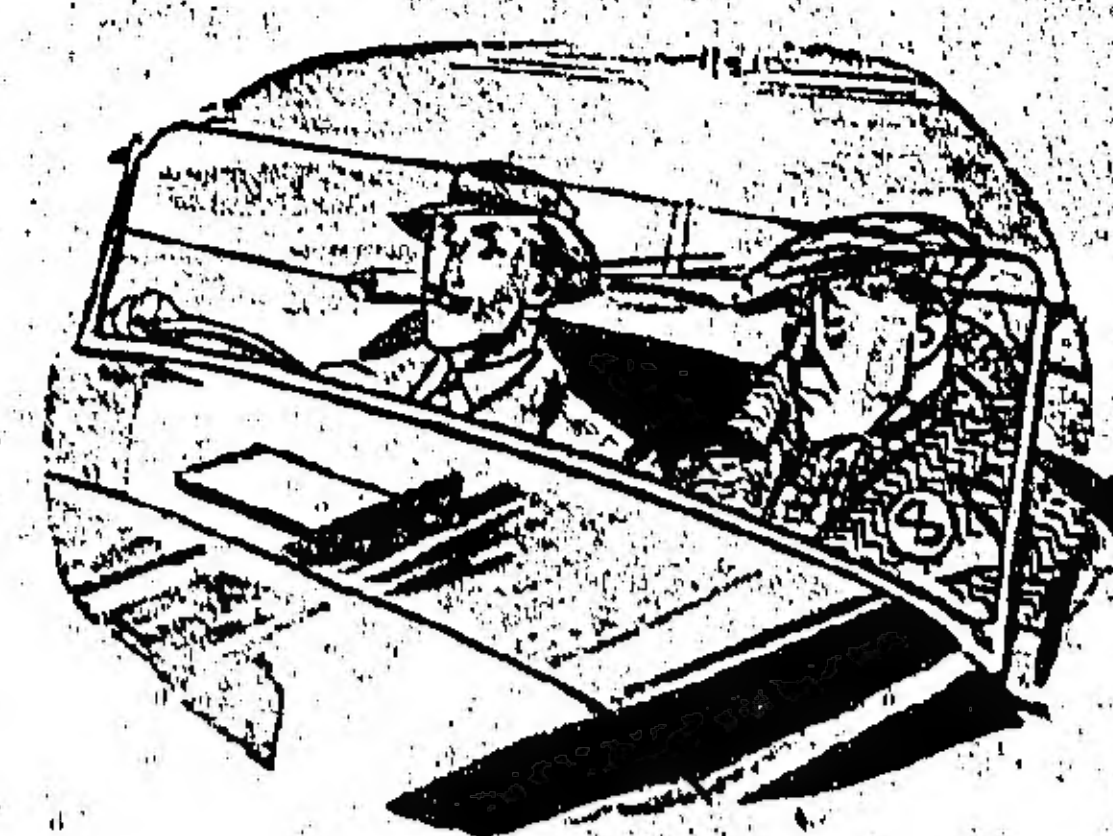

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Seymour, both aged seventy-seven, celebrated their golden wedding.

"We both have charmed lives," Mrs. Seymour said.

"I remember how the pain returned as I came to, shivering on the ice-block."

Mrs. Seymour, who had cooked for King Edward VII and the Rothschilds, has escaped death in operations and road accidents four times.

Her husband, a retired coachman, has been feared dead in four accidents.

ALL OUR YESTERDAYS

"Good party last night, wasn't it?"

"Er—yes—I suppose so. Somehow I don't seem to remember things very clearly. I've got a vague recollection of somebody wearing a frock."

"Yes. That was you."

"Oh, I see. Tell me, Philip—do you remember me being dropped head downwards from a great height on to a concrete floor, by any chance?"

"Slight headache, eh?"

"Philip—I wish I had your flair for understatement. I feel as though I had lived on an exclusive diet of iron filings and broken glass for the last five years. What amazes me is that you seem to be so disgustingly cheerful and bright this morning."

"I know. It must be very exasperating. A medicine man warned me to stick to 'Ginlets' at parties. So I always take the precaution of bringing my own bottle of Rose's Lime Juice. You may cock a sceptical eyebrow, Edwin—but it works."

"How?"

"Rose's Lime Juice is the latest thing in therapeutic agents. It restores the metabolic balance. In simple non-scientific parlance—suitable for a mind such as yours, Edwin—it prevents hangovers."

"Why—oh why—didn't you tell me this last night?"

Supply Of War Materials To Chinese Army

Appeal Against Decision Of Puisne Judge Fails

Recovery Of $190,000 Paid For Supply Of Gas Masks

AN APPEAL AGAINST THE DECISION OF MR. JUSTICE R. E. LINDSELL IN STRIKING OUT PART OF A STATEMENT OF DEFENCE in connection with an action arising out of contracts for the supply of war materials to the Chinese Army, brought in the Full Court yesterday by Henri Krebs, trading as Maurice Augsburg and Company, Gloucester Building, was dismissed after a full day's hearing.

The appeal was heard by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, and Mr. Justice J. A. Faser. Appellant was represented by the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada e Castro, Jnr., and Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. H. J. Armstrong, of Messrs. Deacons. Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., instructed by Mr. Sidney Ng Quinn, of Messrs. G. K. Hall Brutton and Co., appeared for respondents, the Fourth Route Army Corps of Canton.

The action, brought by the Fourth Route Army against Mr. Krebs, was for the recovery of a sum of $190,000 paid on a contract for the supply of 10,000 gas masks, which, on delivery and inspection, were found to be inconsistent with samples.

In connection with this action, Mr. Krebs filed a statement of defence, part of which, rejected by Mr. Justice Lindsell and forming the subject of the appeal, was as follows:—

"The plaintiffs (Fourth Route Army) before the action were and still are indebted to the defendant (Mr. Krebs) in the sum of £242,000, the equivalent at exchange is 2-7/8d. of H.K. $677,647.08, being price of goods bargained for and sold by the defendant to the plaintiffs, and the defendant claims to set-off against the plaintiffs' claim an equal amount of the said debt due to the defendant, i.e. $190,000."

SET-OFF PLEADED

After referring to the order and shipment of gas masks, and the subsequent action brought by the Fourth Route Army for the recovery of the sum of $190,000, Mr. D'Almada said Mr. Krebs filed a statement of defence pleading a set-off in respect of £242,000 which was due to him in respect of 8,000 high explosive shells bargained for and sold to the plaintiffs.

This part of the statement of defence was ordered to be struck out by Mr. Justice Lindsell on the grounds that it was vexatious, frivolous and therefore an abuse of the process of the Court.

Continuing, Mr. D'Almada said that the case for the Fourth Route Army, so far as the argument in Chambers was concerned, was that the claim of Mr. Krebs could not be pleaded as a set-off but should in fact be taken out as an ordinary action by way of claim for damages for breach of contract.

The onus to prove that the statement was frivolous and vexatious was on the plaintiffs, and Mr. D'Almada submitted that this had not been discharged.

The burden of Mr. Potter's arguments in Chambers in this respect, he said, was that the agreement for 8,000 shells being a C.I.F. contract and there being no tender or transfer of the shipping documents to the buyer, the property had not passed to the buyer wherefore obviously a claim for a liquidated sum could not be made, true course of action being damages for breach of contract.

A C.I.F. CONTRACT
Mr. Potter submitted that the contract was in every essential a C.I.F. contract, where no property ever passed and no payment was due until the proper documents were tendered to the buyer. It had been conceded, in this case, that no property was ever put on a ship and no documents had ever been presented.

Yet, just because of a phrase in the contract "delivery at factory" the other side had contended that the property passed to the buyers at the factory. Though 8,000 shells might have been put aside at the factory, it did not mean that it had been appropriated specifically for the present contract.

Even assuming the point, though he disputed it, Mr. Potter said the contract was not performed in all respects.

Counsel quoted authorities to show that even with specific goods in C.I.F. contracts, something more had to be done and that was that the seller must put the goods on board a ship.

Mr. Potter said he had failed to find, in any single case of C.I.F. contracts, where it was presumed that the property had passed before the goods were put on board a ship.

NO DEFENCE

Referring to the statement of defence, Mr. Potter said it was a device raised by counsel to set up a defence in a case which obviously had no defence at all.

Mr. Krebs, in his affidavit, had said that he was not in a position to tell it and when the price was to be paid. The price was, in fact, never paid and consequently the goods were not shipped. Assuming that his clients were wrong, said Mr. Potter, all the other side could do was to sue for breach of contract and not put up the whole sum of £242,000 as a set-off.

"On my friend's showing," said counsel, "payment was not due until the documents were presented. Until the documents came into existence, there was no question of payment at all. Payment and delivery of documents (not goods) are concurrent conditions. The documents must be tendered by the seller to the buyers."

In a C.I.F. contract, no property ever passed until the goods were shipped, said Mr. Potter. Unless property passed, one could not sue for the price, and in this case property never passed from seller to buyer.

Mr. Macnamara said that owing to the curiously worded phrase "delivery at factory" 8,000 shells had been set aside and they relied upon that as an appropriation under the contract. Under the provisions of the contract, argued Mr. Macnamara, property had passed when the shells were allocated at the factory.

JUDGMENT

Giving judgment, the Chief Justice said: "We have, in this case had the benefit of very full and able argument on both sides. The decision we have come to is that the decision the learned trial Judge came to was a correct decision and that this appeal must be dismissed with costs. If the parties so desire, we are prepared to give our reasons in writing."

Mr. D'Almada duly applied for such reasons to be written down.

40 CASES OF CHOLERA

Forty cases of cholera (one imported) were notified to the Health Department on June 25, in addition to twenty-five cases of typhoid, five cases of enteric fever, two cases each of cerebro-spinal fever and dysentery and one case each of small-pox, diphtheria and measles.

BENCH RESERVES JUDGMENT

Indian Sergeant Charged

DEFENCE EVIDENCE

Indian police constables and district watchmen were predominant among the spectators at Kowloon Court yesterday when remaining evidence for the defence was called in the Mongkok Market bribery case.

Mr. Hin-Shing Lo, appearing for the defendant, "Lance-Sergeant Amrik Singh, of Mongkok Police Station, called Sergeant Russell, of the same Station, and several Indian constables who gave evidence of the defendant's movements on the days he is alleged to have solicited for bribes from stall-holders of the market.

Singh is charged on four counts of receiving bribes, to a total of $360, and on four alternative counts of misbehaviour as a police officer. Sergeant Russell, in evidence, stated he was on duty from 9 a.m. to mid-night on March 10. A few minutes before 4 a.m. he paraded certain men. The defendant was among these men, and he had paraded in uniform, belt, and revolver.

DEFENCE SUBMISSION

Mr. Lo also called to the witness-box the defendant, who denied all the charges made against him by the stall-holders.

In his submission for the defence, Mr. Hin-Shing Lo contended that the unsworn statements made by the complainants in the case to the police, and their sworn testimony from the witness-box were largely contradictory in substance, that the defendant was the innocent victim of a trap set by the stall-holders to snare an Indian constable, Mr. Lo contending that the stall-holders held a grudge against the Indian constables of the Station, and that it was not possible from a cockpit in Shumchun Street to obtain a clear view of anything going on in the market below.

Mr. E. Himsforth, before whom the case is being heard, reserved judgment to 11.30 a.m. on Saturday.

Japanese Acquire H.K. Property

NEW LANDLORD'S INTENTIONS

BIG INCREASE IN RENTALS

Rapid developments have followed the purchase by Japanese interests last month of No. 2 Connaught Road Central, one of the biggest blocks of office buildings on the Central Praya.

It was recalled that, as exclusively reported in the "Hongkong Daily Press" of June 1, this property was recently sold by the Hongkong Land Investment and Agency Co., Ltd., to Messrs. Carroll Brothers, acting as brokers for the principal. It is now learned that the purchaser is a Mr. Toshihiko Ito, a Japanese publisher with headquarters in Formosa.

Previous information regarding the policy of the new landlord had been to the effect that no radical change was contemplated. It was stated that the whole front of the premises would be remodelled and offered as a shipping office, that tenants on the ground floor would be given notice to quit, but that beyond a minor increase or two in rent other tenants would not be affected.

Enquiries pursued by the "Daily Press" yesterday show, however, that increases asked, most of which, if not all, will start as from July 1, range as high as from 50 to 70 per cent.

For example, Messrs. Alex Ross and Company, old tenants who, it is understood, are already paying a not inconsiderable rental, have been served with a notice of an increase of between 50 and 60 per cent., and most of the other tenants are similarly affected, the percentage in the majority of cases, in fact, being higher than that.

NOTICE TO QUIT

Regarding the continuance of tenancy, it is learned that occupiers of floors other than the ground floor have been given notice to leave, notably on the first floor which, according to reliable information, the purchaser intends for his own use.

Several tenants who had leases with the old landlords have been offered new ones but it is stated that in most cases, a considerably higher rental is being asked, and in at least one case, where a lease was offered the tenant was told that he would in any event be required to move towards the end of the year.

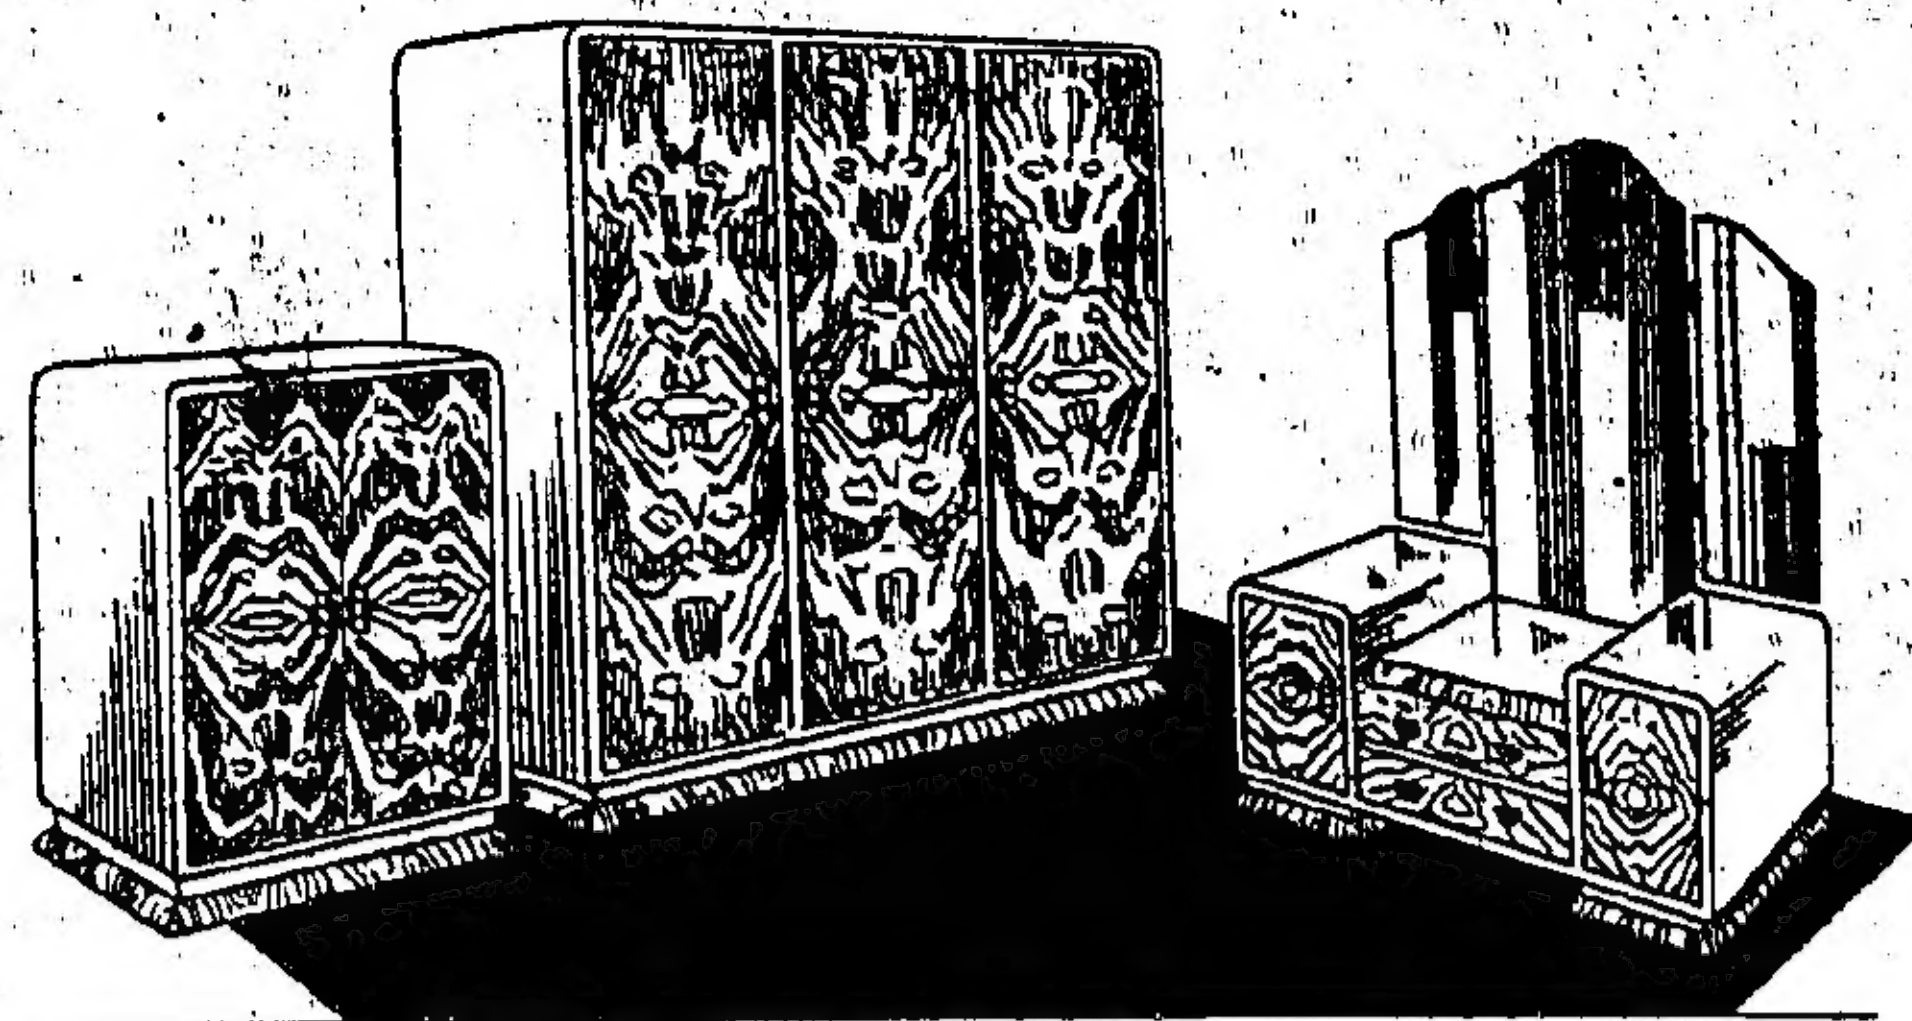

Though naturally dissatisfied with the high increases demanded, most of the tenants intend to stay on, realising fully that they are not protected by the Prevention of Eviction Ordinance and that chances of finding other suitable accommodation in the present congested state of the Colony are very slim.

It is believed, however, that in few cases will leases be signed, most tenants preferring to go on paying the rent asked from month to month while hoping to secure other premises.

Well-known tenants of the building are:—Reuter's News Agency, Messrs. Alex Ross and Co., Messrs. Dodwell and Co's Tea Department, Lammer Brothers, the German Club, Messrs. Amps and Co., Old Cathay, Ltd., J. M. Alves and Co., U.S. Rubber Export Co., the Commercial and Credit Information Bureau, and others.

It is of interest to note that a Japanese firm, Messrs. Taise and Co., moved into the building last week. Another Japanese concern, the local representatives of the Tokyo "Asahi" were already in the premises.

POULTRY PACKED IN SMALL CRATES

Appearing before Mr. T. J. Houston, at the Central Court yesterday, charged with cruelty to fowls, a shop foki, Ngai Tak, was fined $25, or, in default, one month's hard labour.

Defendant was riding a tricycle when he was stopped by the police. On the vehicle was a crate, 1ft. 2in. in diameter and 18in. high. In this crate were 62 ducks. Another crate of a smaller size contained 18 ducks and 28 chickens.

Ngai pleaded guilty to the charge, but states that he did not know the number of birds in the crates. He was told to deliver the fowls by his master. His master admitted the fact and was ordered to pay the fine for the defendant.

Fines totalling $50 were imposed on a married woman, Chan Mui, by Mr. E. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday on charges of falling to report to the S. C. A. possession of a ward and ill-treating a child. Wong Nui, aged 5, on June 14. Defendant admitted that she had beaten the girl because of bad behaviour.

GILMAN'S SALE OF USED CARS

Bugatti Racer Is Pride Of Show

The new show-rooms in Cameron Road, Kowloon, of Messrs. Gilman and Co.'s Motor Department were opened yesterday afternoon to a steady stream of visitors, some 200 to 300, eager to see what Gilman's had to offer this year in the way of bargains at their annual Sale of Used Cars.

There were 31 models on display, ranging in price from $3,500 to $725. Top price was asked for a 1938 Hillman DeLuxe Saloon and low price for a 1931 Willys Six Tourer.

The pride of the show was a Bugatti racer, the only one of its kind in the Colony. A 1928 model, it is priced at $1,000. Late yesterday evening rumours were prevalent in the show-rooms that one visitor had signified his intention to purchase it.

Hosts to the many visitors were Mr. Paul Braga, manager of Messrs. Gilman's Motor Department, Mr. C. Blaker, and other members of the Sales staff. Tea and refreshments were offered, and proved an attraction.

Hillmans predominated, among the 31 cars on view, and Mr. Henry Ford was represented by two products of his factories. There were 10 makes of cars represented.

The Sale will be continued for at least another week, and the Sales staff are confident that every car will be on the road within that period. Yesterday, eight cars claimed new owners.

NO EVIDENCE TO OFFER

Charges of armed robbery against Chan Wah-chung, 48, Chan Sui-mui, 28, Cheng Kau, 37, Tong Wah, 38, and Lo Ma-chau, 50, who, it was alleged, boarded junk 739V at Ching Yee Island on April 10, and robbed the master of the junk, Leung Ling, of $120 and articles of clothing, were dismissed by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

Det.-Inspector A. E. Carey applied for leave to withdraw the charges against the five defendants explaining that the police had no evidence to offer of their participation in the robbery.

JUDGMENT FOR DEFENDANT

In the Summary Court yesterday Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell gave judgment with costs, for Tung Chun-yin, of No. 434 Nathan Road, third floor, against whom a claim for $1,000 for damage to furniture and household goods was brought by his brother-in-law, Tsang Fat-chiu, of No. 8 Fuk Wah Street, ground floor. Plaintiff was represented by Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ, and Mr. M. A. da Silva was for the defence.

Far East, have shown whether these warnings and headlines were justified or not.

AND THUS it is that the British press to-day continues its campaign, not of alarmist and exaggerated absurdities, but of a sincere effort to make people realize from which quarters danger threatens. The press is to-day clamouring to know the reason for the protracted delay in the negotiations being conducted with the Soviet for a pact against aggression. From the moment the idea was mooted, the press urged that it should be brought to fruition as quickly as possible, and, again, in strong headlines, foretold what would happen if this was not done as expeditiously as possible. It is admitted now that had the Soviet agreement been an accomplished fact a month ago, the present situation in Tientsin and the threat which hangs over all foreign interests in China would not have arisen. Unmoved, therefore, by such outbursts against the newspaper profession, the press will carry on its campaign in the interests of peace and time will show, as it has shown in the past few months, that once again the pen is really mightier than the sword in bringing about normal conditions to this troubled world.

Governor Pays Visit To St. Louis Industrial School

While His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, was paying a visit to the St. Louis Industrial School yesterday morning, one of the younger boys fainted when he was overcome by the heat.

The incident was noticed by Sir Geoffrey, who, on rising to reply to the address of welcome made by Fr. John Guarona, Director of the School, remarked that he would say what he had to say in a very short compass, as it was such a hot day, and the boys were standing in the sun.

His Excellency was accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. G. Treverton.

The School band played selections and accompanied the boys when they sang in Chinese, a special "Youth Song" for His Excellency.

The Director expressed the deep gratification of the School in being honoured by the Governor's visit. They had looked forward to the day for a long time, and it would now be written in letters of gold in the annals of the School.

The head boy read a brief speech of welcome on behalf of the boys themselves.

An album made entirely by the boys was presented to His Excellency.

The Governor was deeply touched by the obvious sincerity of the speech, and requested Fr. Guarona to send him a copy of it so that it could be added to the Government records of similar loyal addresses, which were preserved for all time that other Governors might read.

He remarked on the industry of the Salesian Fathers who were mainly responsible for the excellent buildings of the school.

He congratulated the boys on their smartness and thought that their singing was really excellent.

An exhibition of physical training followed, after which the Governor made a tour of the classrooms and work shops.

LA SALLE O.B.A. TO BE FORMED

About 150 former pupils of La Salle College, Kowloon, attended a meeting at the College yesterday evening called for the purpose of discussing a proposal to form an old boys' association.

The meeting, presided over by the Headmaster, the Rev. Bro. Almar, unanimously resolved to form such a body. All past pupils will be circulated and invited to join, and a meeting will be called at a later date to frame the constitution, elect officers and discuss future activities.

TWO JAPANESE RELEASED

Mr. G. Matsumoto, secretary of the Japanese Consulate-General, and his sister, were taken into custody by police on Sunday, on suspicion of having taken photographs in Mount Davis, Road a fortified area.

The two Japanese were interrogated at the station and subsequently released, but the camera and films were held. The film, it is understood, would be developed by the police.

FAR EAST DANCER

EARL BEATTY ON NAVAL STRENGTH

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter).—The position of the British Navy in the Far East is the subject of a lengthy letter in the "Daily Telegraph" by Earl Beatty, who urges that defence must expand to meet the need.

Earl Beatty says that it is, perhaps, not so well known in this country, as in Australia, that the British Government has given an assurance that a battle squadron will be sent to Singapore in the event of trouble in the Far East.

That promise will be far easier to fulfil by the beginning of 1941, when the five new King George V class of battleships will be in commission. The danger period lies between now and then.

Importance of Sea-Power
After stating that it is obvious that Japan will do all in her power to avoid the Philippines and to be careful to see that nothing she does conflicts with any United States interests, Earl Beatty adds that once again the supreme importance of sea-power comes to the fore.

It is useless to be strong, without being strong enough, he asserts.

Kwangtung Guerillas Raid Japanese Radio Station

YUNGYUN, KWANGTUNG, June 26 (Central).—It is revealed here to-day that a party of Chinese plain clothes men smashed into Shengkonghu, north of Tsungia, on the night of June 21 in a lightning attack and engaged the Japanese in street fighting.

The Japanese barracks and radio station were damaged by the Chinese, who withdrew after the raid.

NEW JAPANESE AIR BASE NEAR HONGKONG

SHUING, KWANGTUNG, June 26 (Central).—Following their occupation of Nampang Island, off the coast of Yeung-kong, north-east of Kwangchowwan, the Japanese are reported to be building an airfield there.

With the completion of the airfield, the Japanese will be in a strategic position against Hongkong, as the island is about 130 sea-miles from the British Colony.

EFFECTIVE AID FOR CHINA

Resolution Passed By International Peace Campaign

CHUNGKING, June 26 (Central).—The China Branch of the International Peace Campaign has just received the following text of a resolution on effective aid to China, passed by the International Conference for the Defence of Democracy, Peace, and Humanity, held at Paris, on May 13 and 14:

"For the Chinese people, who defend successfully their liberty and their independence:
"To insist that the democratic governments carry out the decisions already reached by the League of Nations on aid to China by all the Member States.
"To secure government credits in favour of the Chinese government, for the rehabilitation of its people.

Financial Aid
"To secure financial aid, raw materials, and necessary equipment for industrial co-operatives, only with which may the Chinese people reconstruct their economic life in the regions devastated by the war.
"To have organised, on a much larger scale, help in food and in sanitary materials to the innumerable wounded, to the 400,000 orphans, to the 60,000,000 refugees.
"To develop rapidly the organisation of International Hospitals in China.
"To secure the delivery of anti-aircraft and of gas-masks for the protection of civilian population.

Embargo on Japan
"To obtain from the democratic governments a complete embargo on war materials destined for Japan, and the refusal of all credits to this State.
"To develop further the boycott of Japanese goods (particularly silk).
"To support morally and materially the dockers and all workers on strike for opposing the unloading or loading of cargoes of Japanese origin or destination.
"To take effective measures to make known to the Japanese people, deceived by their government, the true character of the Japanese aggression in China and the reprobation which it has evoked among all the peoples."

The Cardinal, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the British Isles, made a statement on Sunday on the attitude towards the activities of the Irish Republican Army and announced that he contemplated to ex-communicate "all members and all secret organizations directed against the State."

The Archbishop's threat is given much attention here, since it is assumed that in view of the pious Catholicism in the Irish, it may not remain without effect on the future activities of the Irish Republican Army.

HONGKONG, JUNE 27, 1939

THE PRESS, THE PEOPLE AND PEACE

A LETTER in the correspondence columns of a Malayan newspaper recently charged the press of the country with publishing exaggerated and misleading reports of international events and accused the newspapers there with being responsible for not only the adverse effect such reports had on business conditions, but also with fermenting bad feeling between nations. Not so very long ago, in this Colony, a lady speaker, in addressing the members of a local society, launched a similar bitter tirade against the press in Hongkong and all those agencies associated with the dissemination of news to the public. Seeing that the speaker was addressing a gathering in a British colony, it must be assumed that her remarks were directed against the English-speaking press. Her attack was based on the ground that the newspapers were guilty of alarmist tendencies regarding the march of events in these unsettled times and that, therefore, in addition to creating bitterness between nations, would be responsible eventually for plunging the world into another war. From time to time, the British press in particular, not only in Hongkong, but in countries overseas, has made it clear that their duty to their reading public is to lay before it the realities of situations as they arise and that their allegedly startling and alarming headlines and reports carry in them sincere warnings calculated to suggest to the nation means whereby such eventualities might best be averted and war prevented. Apart from the fact that the British press is mainly on the side of peace efforts being pushed forward so strenuously, the very reason for glaring headlines is proof that the newspapers are doing their share, and more, in the interests of peace and against war and all that that word means to-day.

THE CHARGES of misleading the public are, therefore, totally unjustified. There is sufficient evidence to show, particularly in reference to the press in this part of the world, that if the warnings contained in their headlines relating to the hostilities in China and the intentions of the Japanese aggressors had been heeded, much of the present confusion and the perfectly intolerable position with regard to British prestige and interests in the Far East might have been avoided. The events which have followed each other in quick succession, both in Europe and the

PUBLIC INDIGNATION GROWING OVER INDIGNITIES IN TIENTSIN: GERMAN TAUNTS AT DISHONOUR TO BRITAIN

BRITON AND GERMAN-BORN WIFE SUBJECTED TO DEGRADING SEARCH

While further indignities suffered by British subjects in Tientsin are revealed by Reuter—the latest stripping incidents involving a Briton and his German-born wife—public indignation in London is growing unmistakably over these insults and official quarters are reported to be duly impressed by the need for action.

In the meantime, "the dishonour which Britain is having to endure" in Tientsin is being loudly proclaimed in Germany, where gibes are being made in public speeches at British threats in retaliation.

NO FORCE BEHIND THREATS

Dr. Goebbels, in a speech in Cologne, ridiculed British policy. "There is no force behind their threats," he said. "The Japanese can strip Britons naked and they can do nothing."

TIENTSIN, June 26 (Reuter)—Following repeated representations by the British Consul-General, Mr. G. A. Smith, the Briton who was arrested by the Japanese on June 17, has been released.

DEGRADING SEARCH

It was revealed yesterday that a Briton, Mr. D. Findlay, and his German-born wife, were victims of a degrading search outside the Concession, while en route to the Country Club, of which Mrs. Findlay is the manageress.

After queuing up for a search in a hut for about one hour, they were taken into separate rooms and ordered to strip, until the husband was clad only in a singlet and his wife in a small under-garment, both exposed to the view of any on-looker.

The Japanese sentry was an interested spectator of the stripping of Mrs. Findlay, which was carried out by a Chinese female searcher.

Parade Not Held

CHUNGKING, June 26 (Central)—Owing to the strict precautionary measures taken by the British authorities, the proposed parade of the Japanese-controlled White Russian volunteers into the British Concession in Tientsin failed to take place yesterday, according to a report from that city.

The Russians, it is stated, did not take any other action aside from holding a meeting in the First Special District. Meanwhile, Britons continued to be subjected to indignities by the Japanese. Yesterday three Britons, including one woman, were forced to wait under a boiling sun at the barrier for a considerable length of time before they were finally allowed to pass.

No Relaxation

The Japanese restrictions on the entrance of vegetables into the Concessions have not been relaxed. Very little vegetables and meat were carried into the Concessions yesterday.

British precautions in the Concession are being continued. Riot vans of the British Municipal Council appear at given points at regular intervals, while the British soldiers assist in patrolling the streets.

Economic Measures

CHUNGKING, June 26 (Central)—In an attempt to reduce the importance of the foreign concessions in Tientsin, the Japanese have formed a commission to apply "economic measures" against these areas, according to a Tientsin report.

The commission, with headquarters in Peking, consists of four sections, namely, communications, finance, resources and trade. In the field of communications, it is learned that the Japanese are planning to build a number of wharfs at the Third Special District to replace those at the British and French Concessions.

No Dictation

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter)—The hope that Mr. Neville Chamberlain's word to Germany and Japan will be taken to heart in those countries, is expressed by "The Times" in an editorial.

The writer adds that Mr. Chamberlain made it quite clear that Great Britain would suffer no dictation as to her policy in the Far East and that he still hoped the Japanese Government had no intention of condoning the excesses of its soldiery.

In any case, no British Government can tolerate, without appropriate reprisal, the scandalous ill-treatment of its subjects in foreign territory.

PRESS VIEWS

LONDON, June 26 (T/Ocean)—The Far East tension continues to attract the greatest attention in the British press. The diplomatic correspondent of the "Daily Mail" reports that the Government contemplated publication of a detailed account of the "insufferable insults" which Japan had inflicted on British subjects. It was being considered, the paper says, to support this official account by affirmations from the Englishmen concerned.

This "Daily Mail" further reports that agreement might be reached with Japan on the question of the extradition of the four Chinese agitators who were being sheltered at the moment in the British Concession in Tientsin. If, however, Japan did not moderate her attitude the British Government would be obliged to adopt measures which would prove to the Japanese Government the determination not to tolerate any further insults.

U.S. CONCERN

SHANGHAI, June 26 (Int'l)—The American community here and in Hankow have expressed concern over the charges of anti-Japanese activities by the Rev. L. W. Holland, an American Methodist Episcopal Missionary in Nanchang. Such accusations were made by the Japanese army, but denied by Rev. Holland. The charges are considered serious, and it is feared that the American is under detention.

Rev. Holland came from Pasadena, California.

DISHONOUR WHICH BRITAIN IS HAVING TO ENDURE

BERLIN, June 26 (Reuter)—"The dishonour which Britain is having to endure" in Tientsin was discussed by the German Labour Leader, Herr Ley, before 18,000 cheering political leaders in Potsdam.

"Wherever one looks in this world Empire one sees failure upon failure," he asserted, adding that Britain could have spared herself this situation if she had not refused the repeated offers of the German Fuehrer to come to a friendly and sensible union with Germany.

"Britain is experiencing in Tientsin the blockade she once applied against Germany," he declared, "but worse than this she must put up with the disgrace."

"It is not a question of material things that is under de-

GROWING PUBLIC INDIGNATION

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter)—Reuter's diplomatic correspondent learns that official quarters in London are very much impressed by the growing feeling of public indignation in Britain aroused by reports from Tientsin of the brutal and degrading treatment of British subjects at the hands of Japanese soldiers and officials.

It is expected that this feeling will not fail to react upon the Government if Japan refuses to give satisfaction in regard to the proposals submitted to Tokyo, which embrace a frank discussion of the points at issue and an immediate cessation of the incidents which Mr. Neville Chamberlain referred to as "intolerable."

late in the Far East, but the dishonour England is having to endure."

MISSIONARIES KILLED DURING AIR RAID

SHANGHAI, June 26 (Reuter)—Word has just been received that the Rev. A. A. Caswell and his wife, Protestant missionaries of the Canadian Holiness Movement, Mission at Changteh, Hunan, were both killed during a Japanese air raid on that city on June 24.

AMAZING JAPANESE CLAIM

133 SOVIET PLANES SHOT DOWN!

BORDER BATTLE ON JUNE 22

TOKYO, June 26 (Reuter)—Press reports claim that 133 Soviet planes were brought down in the fighting on the "Manchukuo"-Mongolian border since June 20.

It is stated that a further fourteen Soviet aircraft were challenged by Japanese scouting planes yesterday and that three were shot down.

Both yesterday's engagements were located near Lake Buirnor, where a big battle is reported to have occurred on June 22.

ANGLO-FRENCH SOLIDARITY UNANIMOUS AGREEMENT REACHED AT SINGAPORE DEFENCE CONFERENCE

SINGAPORE, June 26 (Reuter)—The Anglo-French Defence Conference sat for nine hours yesterday and is expected to close to-day.

A communique which was issued states that unanimous agreement was reached on all matters of policy.

At the conclusion of the Conference, Admiral Sir Percy Noble, Commander-in-Chief of the China Station, will sail aboard his flagship H.M.S. Kent for Northern China waters, and Reuter understands that the Kent will be sailing this evening.

Entirely Conjectural
The communique was the first issued since the Conference opened.

GERMAN TAUNTS AT BRITAIN

COLOGNE, June 26 (Reuter)—Mr. Neville Chamberlain's Cardiff speech has provided Dr. Goebbels, German Minister of Propaganda, a theme for his address at a Nazi Party meeting.

"We want no promises from London, but deeds," he declared. "If affairs come to a crisis we are ready to take the risk and follow the Government, because he who does not gamble, cannot win."

"If British Ministers threaten, that does not matter to us. There is no force behind their threats."

"The Japanese can strip Britons naked and they can do nothing. Once the Kaiser, the army and the nation were all done away. That happened once but will never happen again."

CHINA WAR:

SHANSI OFFENSIVE EFFECTIVE

QUIET ON HUNAN & KIANGSI FRONTS

LOYANG, June 26 (Central)—The Chinese counter-offensive against the Japanese along the Shansi-Honan border is making steady progress, latest military despatches from the front reveal.

One column has reached the immediate outskirts of Yuanku, strategic town on the Shansi-Honan border. Bitter fighting is raging in that area and it is said that the Japanese casualties are heavy.

A heavy gun duel between the Japanese, at Yuanku, and the Chinese, on the south bank of the Yellow River, raged on Saturday, but both lines remained intact.

The Japanese at Wangmouchen and Kaolochen, north-west of Yuanku, were repulsed by the Chinese in a vigorous pincer attack, and are retreating in confusion towards Henglinkwan.

Prior to their retreat, the Japanese set fire to the houses in Kaolochen, completely razing the town to the ground.

Hunan And Kiangsi Fronts

MILO, HUNAN, June 26 (Central)—Quiet now prevails on the north Hunan and Kiangsi fronts.

The Chinese and Japanese forces in north Hunan are still facing each other along a four-mile front on the north bank of the Sinsiang River.

The situation northeast of Kaonan, and along the Chin River in northern Kiangsi remains unchanged. The Chinese continue to send raiding parties to harass the Japanese.

Japanese planes, taking off from Nanchang, have been conducting reconnaissance over the Chinese positions during the past few days.

U.S. SILVER POLICY

NO LONGER LOGICALLY DEFENSIBLE

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter)—To-day the United States silver policy is no longer logically defensible, says the "Manchester Guardian" city columnist commenting on the United States and the silver price.

After pointing out the existence of grounds for revolutionary revision of the United States silver policy on June 30, the writer adds that to the contrary discontinuation of silver purchases or even a major reduction in the United States silver purchase prices may be used as a platform against President Roosevelt in the coming election campaign.

At least it would devalue the Treasury's silver holdings severely and would be accepted as the President's admission that he wasted hundreds and millions of dollars in the past five years for a purpose which he no longer regards as of any value.

Tactical considerations might thus induce President Roosevelt to maintain a policy, which he carried out against his own wishes for five years, for another year.

Unrestricted Entry Right Is Insisted

SHANGHAI, June 26 (Reuter)—The British naval authorities, are stated to have insisted on the unrestricted right of entry of British ships into Swatow and, if necessary, would provide naval escort for ships calling there.

Although the Japanese agreed on June 24 to allow British ships to enter Swatow freely they have now informed the British authorities that they are unwilling to allow more than one British ship to call weekly.

Barbed-wire barricades, picketed by Japanese sailors, have been built round the port's warehouses and British ships which have entered the harbour in defiance of the Japanese are unable to load and unload their cargoes.

CHINESE RESISTANCE NOT AFFECTED

From Our Own Correspondent
CHUNGSHAN, June 26.—The Japanese occupation of Swatow does not in the least affect the Chinese resistance, or the strength of the Kwangtung military authorities, as both Generals Li Han-yun and Chang Fa-kuei envisaged such a possibility. Several picked units of regular troops and Self-Defence Corps have encircled the enemy around Swatow, so that their advance inland is impossible.

Japanese warships are cruising around Yangkong, in south-west Kwangtung, and along the entire coast to give the impression that more coastal towns will be occupied. As a precautionary measure, people in the coastal villages have been ordered to move to the interior owing to bombardment by Japanese warships.

Six thousand special constables in London paraded in Hyde Park and were inspected by the Earl of Athlone. This was the biggest gathering of special constables for many years, says a Reuter message from London.

Further Instructions To Sir William Seeds

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter)—Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Prime Minister, stated to-day in the House of Commons that Lord Halifax hoped shortly to be in a position to send further instructions to Sir William Seeds, British Ambassador in Moscow.

Mr. Chamberlain added that His Majesty's Government was at present, in consultation with the French Government, considering the comment of the Soviet Government on the last Anglo-French proposals.

The Prime Minister said he did not think matters would be helped by sending a Minister to Moscow as suggested in a question by Mr. H. Dalton.

Mr. Dalton suggested that the outstanding difficulties were causing great satisfaction to Berlin and increasing the risk of new German aggression and a general war in Europe.

Mr. Chamberlain said: "That may be so, and I hope that is also in the mind of the Soviet Government."

Asked to make a statement respecting consultation with the French Government, the Prime Minister said he was not prepared to give details.

DETAILED REPORT

LONDON, June 26 (T/Ocean)—The "Daily Telegraph" publishes a noteworthy commentary by its diplomatic correspondent on the Anglo-Soviet pact negotiations which is received with considerable interest in political quarters here since it evidently reflects the views of the British Foreign Office.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" diplomatic correspondent the Foreign Office on Sunday received a long telegram from the British Ambassador in Moscow, Sir William Seeds, with a detailed report in this dispatch, various points on which agreement had not yet been reached adding some personal recommendations as to the course to be followed for expediting the negotiations.

The diplomatic correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph" believes that the Cabinet will be compelled to re-examine the situation with the help of Sir William's report and to give new instructions to the Ambassador in Moscow.

According to the correspondent Sir William Seeds advised the British Government to make further concessions to Moscow. The correspondent adds that the British and French mediators in Moscow are confident that an agreement will eventually be reached if the recommendations contained in Sir William's report to the British Government are accepted by the British and French Governments.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Cabinet will meet again on Monday to examine Sir William Seeds' report.

Increase In Number Of Air Squadrons

SIR K. WOOD ON EMPIRE DEFENCE

LONDON, June 26 (T/Ocean)—An increase in the number of air squadrons in British overseas possessions was announced by the Air Minister, Sir Kingsley Wood, in a speech at the annual conference of the Empire Press Union on Monday.

The Minister stated that the proposed increase would be carried out within the next two years. Among the new units will be squadrons of reconnaissance planes which will be specially for the protection of vital shipping routes. In overseas possessions provisions will be made for training voluntary air reserves to be attached to regular air force garrisons.

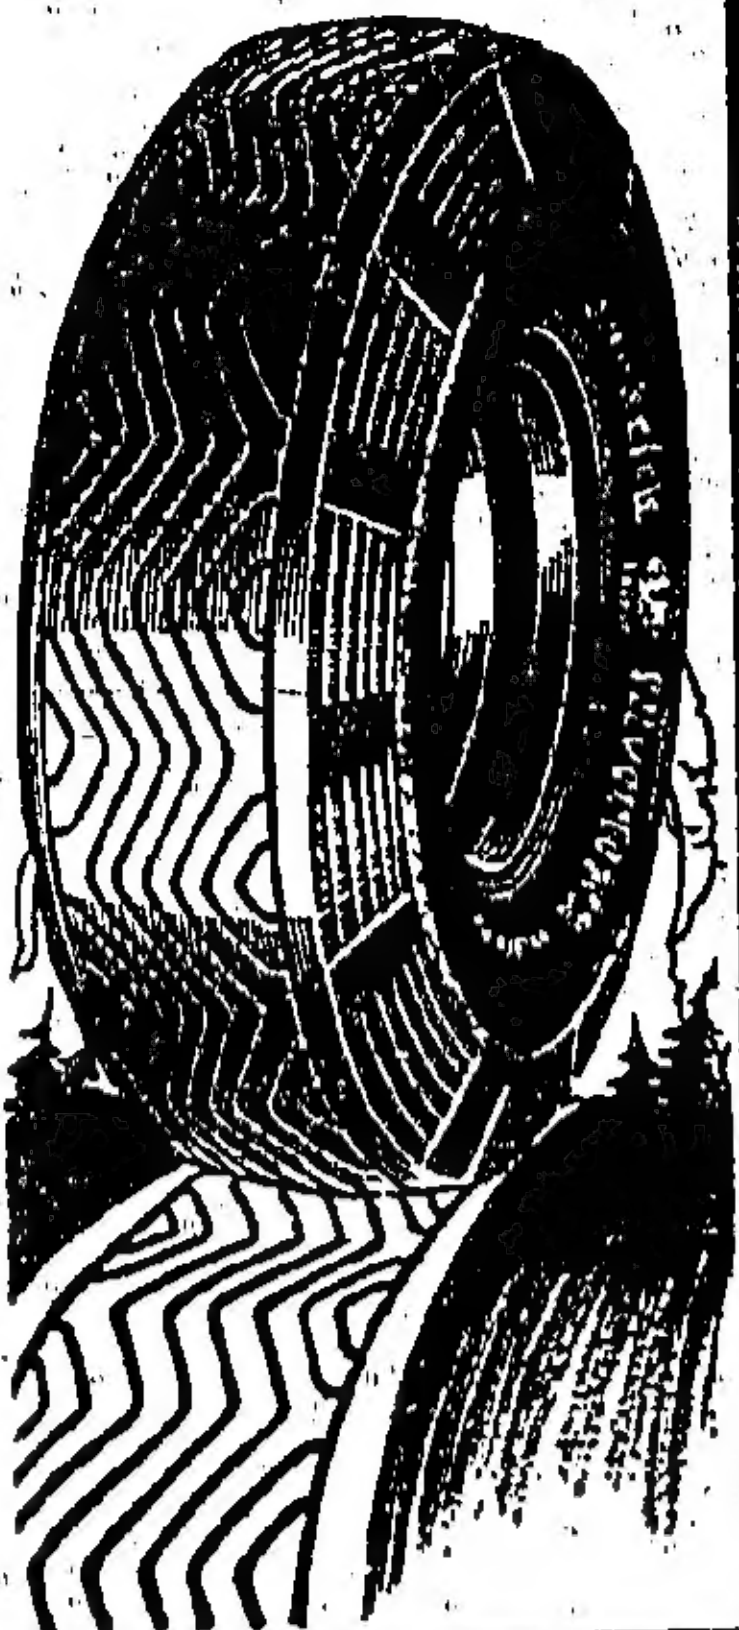

Sir Kingsley stressed that increased speed of warplanes, as well as increase of distances flown by them, was bound to revolutionise the entire problem of Empire defence. In the sphere of civil aviation, the Minister announced that regular air service between Australia and New Zealand would be opened next autumn and that preparations were being actively made for the organisation of services between New Zealand and Canada which would form the last link in round-the-world Empire air chain.

HOW U. B. BEER IS MADE: SHANGHAI PRESSMEN SHOWN ROUND FACTORY

The high standard of cleanliness maintained in the manufacture of one of the most popular beverages — beer — was displayed to a party of representatives of the Shanghai International Press by officials of the Union Brewery Company, Limited, when they led the party on a tour of inspection of their 4-storey brewery building at 130 Ichang Road, recently.

The plant, the largest in the Far East, is at present working at capacity and producing 50 million bottles of beer annually, and the visitors were shown the high standard of organization prevailing at the brewery, and particularly the fact that nothing connected with the production of the beer is touched by human hand. The entire process of manufacturing is carried out by machinery under the most sanitary conditions.

COMPLICATED PROCESS

The party of 15 newspapermen spent the better part of three hours going over the brewery under the guidance of Mr. I. N. Zadoff, supervising manager of the factory. They were impressed by the complicated nature of the process of manufacture.

By far the most interesting part of a brewery inspection tour so far as the layman is concerned, is to see the bottle washing, filling, inspection, sorting, labeling and crating.

BOTTLING AND WASHING

First, all sorts of bottles are sorted out. After being found suitable to hold beer, they are sent up to the floor above in groups of about 20 by a special machine. Upstairs the bottles find their way into special washing machines where each bottle is washed no less than 210 times in steam, soap and water, before it reaches the end of the machine when it is considered as being a clean container.

The bottles, by this time, are all lined up on moving racks and pass through a filling machine, then a capping machine, and finally start on the critical inspection belt. Everything so far had been done by men, but here women take over. They are inspectors who snatch bottles off the moving rack at the slightest suspicion of imperfection. The girls see that the bottles are filled properly yet not too full, so that they do not break during the pasteurization which is yet to follow.

Needless to say, the girls become expert at this task and added to that, each bottle must pass a magnifying glass test at two stages. Here the bottle of beer is inspected for any impurities. This inspection stage is the severest test of all and it is surprising the number of bottles that are taken off the rack for destruction, because of impurity not visible to the naked eye.

CRITICAL INSPECTION

The bottles that remain on the continuous moving rack now go into pasteurization vats for preservation of the contents. From here they go on racks to the labeling machines and into moving holders which transport the bottled beer to the ground floor for crating and marketing.

The management of the Union Brewery will arrange for the inspection of the plant by groups at any time so that they may see for themselves how U. B. beer is made, the machinery required, and the strictly hygienic conditions that prevail at this most efficient institution.

MOTION AGAINST EDITOR FAILS

Publication Of Franco's Statement Not "Contempt"

A motion to commit Mr. Geoffrey Dawson, editor of "The Times," to prison for alleged contempt of Court was dismissed by Mr. Justice Simonds in the Chancery Division, London. The motion was brought by Mr. Henri de Reding following the report of a speech by General Franco about a £2,000,000 fund lodged in Britain by the Spanish Republican Government.

Mr. de Reding, as one of the trustees of this fund, is a defendant with others in an action brought by the State of Spain for possession. The fund, it has been stated, was deposited for use among Spanish refugees.

General Franco was reported to have said that in Great Britain "a great part of the wealth of the Spanish banks remained sequestered and subject to litigation owing to the monstrous survival of a supposed humanitarian society formed by the Reds after their cowardly flight."

The statement as to the "monstrous survival of a supposed humanitarian society" was one, said Sir Stafford Cripps, for Mr. de Reding, which clearly cast upon Mr. de Reding the imputation that he was connected with some very undesirable thing.

REFLECTION ON PARTY

It was clearly the type of thing which the Courts had said must not be said, when an action was before the Court with respect to a party to an action, because it would tend to make that party think he ought to compromise or withdraw his defence in other words, to bring pressure upon him from outside in order to influence the conduct of the action.

Largely owing to reports in "The Times" and other newspapers, it was well known that he was one of the defendants in the proceedings and a trustee of the declaration of trust.

Mr. Valentine Holmes, who appeared for Mr. Geoffrey Dawson, read an affidavit in which his client said he was responsible for the matter contained in "The Times" and for the publication of the article complained of.

It was not suggested by Mr. de Reding, Mr. Dawson said, that the publication of the report was intended to interfere with the course of justice or to prejudice his defence. Therefore it was unnecessary to say that it was not so intended.

He submitted that the publication of the report did not tend and was not calculated to interfere with the course of justice or to prejudice Mr. de Reding's defence in any way.

WOULD NOT BE INFLUENCED
Giving judgment, Mr. Justice Simonds said in the present case it was not suggested that the course of justice was likely to be perverted or deflected so far as any judgment of the Court was concerned.

It was not a case in which the mind of a jury was likely to be influenced by any matter which appeared in "The Times" or any other newspaper. It was not a case which came before a jury, and it had been repeatedly said that the mind of the Court was not likely to be influenced by such matters.

"In a matter of this kind," he added, "it must always be a question of degree. It seems to me that the case falls far short of such circumstances as would justify me in granting relief upon this ground."

WORLD'S HEAVIEST INGOT MOULD

The Brightside Foundry & Engineering Co. has produced at its Sheffield works the heaviest cast iron ingot mould in the world.

It will be used at the Vickers works of the English Steel Corporation for producing ingots of well over 200 tons in weight.

More than 170 tons of molten metal were required to cast the mould, the six ladles used requiring 8½ minutes to run.

ANGLO-RUMANIAN TRADE DISCUSSION

LONDON, June 24 (T/Ocean). The negotiations conducted by the Rumanian trade delegation in London are now practically concluded, according to informed city quarters.

It is stated that the Board of Trade has consented to grant Rumania an additional credit of £5,000,000 over and above the original five millions granted by the British Government under the terms of the Anglo-Rumanian trade agreement.

The condition for granting this supplementary credit is that it shall be affected exclusively to the purchase of war material from British firms.

CHINESE CURRENCY MEASURES

CHUNGKING, June 26 (Central). A spokesman of the Ministry of Finance, in a statement issued yesterday, declared that the restrictions on withdrawals from Chinese banks in Shanghai, which were enforced last week, will be removed as soon as the financial situation in the port city returns to normal.

He explained that the emergency measures were temporary and that they were enforced to check heavy purchase of foreign exchange and to stabilize the currency situation in Shanghai.

The spokesman also added that the currency regulations issued by the Ministry of Finance on August 15, 1937, will continue to be effective.

NEW CONTRACTS

Messrs. Stanton Ironworks Company, Limited, near Nottingham, have received an order from Messrs. United Kingdom Gas Corporation, Limited, 9, Clement's lane, London, E.C.4, for 52 miles of high-pressure gas mains. The pipes will form the main underground artery of the first stage of the West Yorkshire Gas Grid.

Messrs. Associated Electric Vehicle Manufacturers, Limited, 23-4, Grand Buildings, Trafalgar-square, London, W.C.2, have received a large order from Russia for their Electric factory trucks. The value of the contract, inclusive of a trial order recently delivered, is about 15,000l.

FACTORY OUTPUT IN AUSTRALIA

From 1936 to 1938 the value of Australian manufacturing production increased from £162,000,000 to £190,000,000. During 1938 additional factories, totalling 300, began production.

A large cotton-spinning company, with headquarters in Melbourne, is planning a £1,000,000 scheme for establishment of subsidiary companies in Sydney, Melbourne, and Brisbane.

TOY EXPORTS DROP

Germany's toy export trade suffered a set-back in 1938 after advancing steadily for three years. German toy shipments abroad last year were valued at $13,850,000 against $15,184,000 in 1937.

The 1937 figure was about 15 per cent higher than that of 1936 and 35 per cent in excess of 1934. The recession in 1938 is attributed by the German toy industry to Japanese competition and to organized boycotts in important foreign markets.

Rhodesia Railways have ordered from a Manchester firm four heavy passenger locomotives which, it is claimed, will be the most powerful engines in the world operating on 60 lb. rails. Each will weigh approximately 174 tons. They are required for working the through run for 500 miles between Mafeking and Bulawayo and are capable of a speed of 50 miles an hour.

Germany's exports of musical instruments during 1938 were valued at $10,598,000 compared with $12,248,000 during 1937, a decrease of 14 per cent. Exports of pianos, accordions and mouth organs accounted for 87.8 per cent of the value of all musical instrument exports during 1938.

SINGAPORE RUBBER

The market opened 1/8 cent higher for "spot," 3/16 cent higher for July/September and 1/4 cent higher for October/December deliveries as compared with Friday's closing rates.

The better sentiment was caused by overnight cable-reports on the conclusion of an Anglo-American agreement to barter 600,000 bales of American Cotton for 80,000 tons of British Crude-Rubber. It was also reported that the required quantity would probably be produced under a special quota release by the I.R.R. Committee, such Rubber to be stored as a war reserve for seven years and not to be sold to the trade, if no war would arise during this period. In this event it is believed in trade-circles that the barter will ultimately prove to be a price-hardening factor.

The more optimistic outlook was also aided by reports of a further fair increase in American Motorcar-production for the week ending June 23rd.

Towards the close of the session, however, the higher price-level tended to attract speculative liquidation, resulting in a slight setback of 1/8 cent for all deliveries.

Closing tone was quietly steady.

With initial prices slightly marked down, to-day's market displayed an easy appearance and ruled somewhat irregularly throughout. However, a firming tendency was evinced towards the close, and prices recovered and stood at their best levels of the day. On the whole, fluctuations were confined to a narrow range. The subsidy question was a bolstering factor.

POPLIN IN BELFAST

A new factory for the manufacture of poplin is being built in Belfast at a cost of nearly £20,000 by a Dublin concern. It is hoped to have the factory in operation in August at the latest.

About 110 workers are engaged in the company's present factory in Belfast. Expansion of the staff will be gradual. Owing to the intricate process involved in the manufacture of poplin, additional workers will have to receive special training, and it is proposed to take on trainees at the rate of 20
a year. The work so far as Northern Ireland is concerned is new.

The company started manufacturing in Belfast in 1925. At that time girls were trained in special methods of hand-sewing,
but the material was woven in Dublin. In 1932 looms were erected, and since then business has steadily increased, necessitating removal to larger premises on two occasions.

"Doomed Pit"
Reprieved

Cross Hands Colliery (West Wales), doomed to be closed permanently has been reprieved.

The owners, Amalgamated Anthracite Collieries, Ltd., have now decided to re-open the pit
and re-employ the full complement of about 900 men and boys.
Miners who had given up hope
of being re-engaged and had left the district have been given a period of three weeks to return
and claim their places.

Negotiations between the directors of the company and representatives of the South Wales Miners' Federation resulted in a new plan of operations made possible to re-open the colliery.

GIRL'S AGE
SAVES
HER LIFESHE HAD BOMB THAT COULD KILL SCORES

Instead of being sentenced to death by a British military court at Jerusalem
Rachel Habbush, a Yemenite
Jewess, was sentenced to life imprisonment because doctors and the court disregarded her age.

One doctor said she was seven teen. Another said she was nineteen. And the court finally decided she was under eighteen and therefore could not be sentenced to death.

Disguised By Veil

Rachel, who was also known as Ohevami ("Lover of the People"),
was accused of carrying a dangerous infernal machine which,
if it had exploded, would have killed scores of people.

The bomb was made of eleven pounds of iron fragments, twelve sticks of gelignite, and two detonators attached to a cheap
pocket watch and electric battery.

Rachel, disguised by a veil as a Moslem woman, was caught
when a ten-year-old Arab boy
suspected she was not a Moslem
because the basket she paid him
to carry contained a Jewish loaf
instead of the flat Arab bread.

He told a policeman, who investigated and arrested the girl.

Parents Wept

Rachel listened to the evidence
without a trace of emotion and when Major Cathraill, President of the court, asked if she had anything to say before sentence she replied: "I have nothing to say."

After sentence she shook hands
without a trace of emotion, and
her attorney, British barrister Edward David Goitein. Then she got into a Black Maria with four armed British constables and a prison warden and was taken to Bethlehem Women's Prison.

During the case she made no
statement—not even to her lawyer.

It is believed in Army Intelligence circles that Rachel belonged to a secret Jewish terrorist organisation whose members are sworn to silence.

DISTURBING
PEACE & ORDERChinese Communists
Sentenced At Harbin

TOKYO, June 26 (Reuter).—
Sentences ranging from death
to five years imprisonment
were passed in "Manchukuo"
on 114 Chinese Communists who were arrested in March 1938, according to an official announcement at Hsingking.

The Communists were tried at the Harbin High Court. Ten were sentenced to death, seven to life imprisonment.

They were accused of disturbing peace and order in accordance with instructions issued by the Seventh Convention of the Com-intern in 1935.

CADDIES' 6D A LB.
FOR OVERLOAD

Golf Official's Plan

Major Forbes Bell, secretary of the Royal Liverpool Club, where the Amateur Golf Championship is being played, puts forward an interesting suggestion for limiting the number of clubs a player
may carry.

The maximum is 14. Major Forbes Bell advocates the fixing of a maximum weight of clubs,
bag and equipment to be carried by the player's caddy. All weight in excess would be charged at 6d per lb.

In some instances caddies, besides carrying a huge bag, are expected to take an umbrella, mackintosh clothing, an extra sweater, a plentiful supply of golf balls, with occasionally an extra pair of shoes and a shooting stick.

The Royal and Ancient Club
officials have taken no steps to enforce the 14-club limit rule.
The matter is being left to the individual player to challenge his opponent on the number of clubs being carried.

CHINA'S NOVEL METHOD
OF EDUCATION: PUBLICITY AND TOURING PARTIES

CHUNGKING, June 25 (Central).—Chinese education is no longer confined to the classroom and the lecture hall. Under the stimulus of war the government has been bringing education to the masses in a multitude of new forms.

Unique among the many new methods is the "educational boat" which plies the rivers of Szechwan. This 20-ton junk has its stage plays, musical shows, radio talks, and movie performances helped to educate 500,000 along the Yangtze and Kialin rivers since its launching last September.

Operating on the same principle
as the "educational boat" a number of "educational cars" are touring the network of highways
in the rear provinces. The cars are maintained by the Ministry of Education, various provincial departments of education, and public organisations. The Chungking
Y.M.C.A. has two such cars educating Szechwan farmers along the provincial highways. No less than 1,200,000 people came in contact with the "Y" cars in 1938.

Touring Of Towns

The Ministry has also organised a number of troupes touring towns and cities in free China to educate the masses. More than 1,000 elementary and secondary school teachers from various war areas have been organised and divided into three dramatic troupes, two choruses, and a number of social education corps to work in the hinterland.

Chinese education literally has gone "underground" in Kwangsi since the war. As one of the Publicity Corps,

However, the effective means of popular education is probably still the numerous street-corner publicity corps organised by young students, public functionaries, party members, merchants, and workmen. They give lectures, stage plays, and sing patriotic songs
wherever and whenever a crowd is gathered.

For those who can read a little,
there are numerous wall-newspapers posted in public squares.
These wall-newspapers are brightly illustrated with cartoons, pictures, and contain short essays and stories of war. Woodcuts are used to full advantage in educating the masses.

For educated people who want to further their knowledge, discussion groups, and reading groups have been organised. In these groups, topics ranging from personal life to international intrigue and complicated political theories are discussed.

Mass Education
Mass education at the front is carried on with vigour by numerous political workers and educated soldiers. A unit which is stationed on the Hsueh-Kiang border teaches people in that district to read and write by asking them to read three Chinese characters when passing sentry posts. The same unit has also conducted a number of short courses within three or four miles of the front line.

Education behind Japanese lines
is also making much progress.
Villages and towns where no
schools existed before the war
are now dotted with institutions of learning. There, the principles and practice of guerrilla warfare are taught as well as other subjects that meet the special needs
of the "occupied" areas.

ENGLISH COMPETITOR CRASHES

GERMAN WINS BELGIAN GRAND PRIZ

BRUSSELS, June 26 (Reuter)—Hermann Lang, of Germany, driving a Mercedes, won the Belgian Grand Prix over 33 laps, totalling 116 miles, in 3 hrs. 20 min. 21.1 sec., an average speed of 101.348 miles per hour.

Rudolf Hasse, driving an Auto-union, was second and Manfred von Brauchitsch, in a Mercedes, was third.

Richard Seaman, the sole British competitor driving a Mercedes, crashed on the 22nd lap when he was leading. He fractured his arm and was seriously burned.

SEAMAN SUCCUMBS

Richard Seaman died on Monday at dawn of injuries received when his car crashed into a tree during the "Grand Prix Belgique" at Spa on Sunday. Seaman's biggest triumph was winning the Grand Prix in Germany in 1938.

TEST MATCH

ENGLAND LOSE TWO WICKETS

FINE FIELDING AT LORD'S

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter)—The first Test match between England and the West Indies was resumed to-day in the presence of 6,000 spectators. There was brilliant early sunshine but heavy clouds were rolling over after the start. The wicket was expected to be very fast.

Leonard Hutton and Gimblett, England's opening pair, who had collected 13 runs at the close of play on Saturday, made slow progress this morning against the bowling of Martindale and Elyton, combined with brilliant fielding. Twenty runs were scored after half-an-hour's play.

With the total at 49, England's first wicket fell when Gimblett was bowled by Cameron after scoring 22. Paynter joined Hutton but before lunch Paynter was dismissed being caught by Barrow off Cameron's bowling. (119-2-34). Hammond had not opened his account when lunch was taken.

Prior to this, with the score at 71 for 1, had light held up play for fifteen minutes.

Scores:—

West Indies, 1st innings—277 (G. Headley 106, J. Stollmeyer 69; Copson 5 for 85, Bowes 3 for 86).
ENGLAND—1ST INNS.

Wimbledon Begins

CHINESE PLAYER DEFEATED

LONDON, June 26 (Reuter)—In the first round of the men's singles at the Wimbledon tennis championships which opened to-day, Drobny, of Moravia and Bohemia, eliminated J. Ho, of China, in straight sets the scores being 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

The Chinese player was overpowered with the powerful game of the left-hander; Drobny, and was beaten by fast attacking shots to the corners.

Ho's first service was not reliable but in the third set he levelled the games at 4-4. The result, however, was never in doubt.

Kho Sin-kie was a spectator at the match.

MAN DROWNED

A man named Liu Wing-kam, was drowned while swimming in Kowloon Bay yesterday. A friend, Chiu Ling-kai, who reported the incident to the police, stated that Liu had swum out 50 yards when he seemed to get into difficulties and disappeared from view.
